DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/7/2011 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 36, 38-42, 68, and 71-73 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Applicant has amended the claims to include "a downwardly extending end configured to engage an outer surface of the cup." Applicant states that support for this amendment can be found in para. [0027]. However, it is noted that para. [0027] only describes Figure 6, which shows the cap of a non-elected embodiment, as having downwardly extending ends. The elected species only includes Figures 8-9 and 11-13. The originally filed disclosure does not provide support for a cap with a downwardly extending end for these elected embodiments. The specification does not refer to a downwardly extending end in the embodiments, and the drawings do not show any downwardly extending end. The only possible feature shown in these embodiments that could be considered a downwardly extending end is the protrusion identified in the below marked up figure. However, it is not clear from this figure that the protrusion identified by the examiner downwardly extends. Moreover, upon comparison with Figure 9, it appears this protrusion does not downwardly extend along the outer surface, but merely outwardly extends along the top end.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
